

Ms. Casandra's Class Newsletter

PS.III Room 224

Week of April 30-May 4th

Reading - Reading longer books with a partner to help each other keep track of the story and hold each other accountable.

- Asking book partners for help
- Name the important event in each chapter
- Name the problems the character face and how they dealt with it

Writing - Poets notice that poems can be moody

- Using comparisons to clarify feelings and ideas
- Stretching out a comparison in a poem

Spring is here!

Math + S.S.

Math - Interpreting and creating line plots

End of the unit project (Using the data they collect to create graphs)

Social Studies - NYC then and now project presentations

Spelling Words

Purple: thorough, tradition, celebration, gratitude, independence

Red: receive, holiday, culture, decoration, festival

